

Capability Statement

Business Planning, Governance & Optimisation

Is your business planning and optimising for the future? Have you the best controls and systems to ensure you meet your business goals?

Often business owners and managers are so involved in their business they can no longer provide an unbiased opinion of the operations. An independent professional can often assist business directors gain an alternate view of their business. Willmann Consulting can add value at every step of the journey.

By using Willmann Consulting your business can benefit from:

- Learning about your business/ industry and actively working with you in the development and, if necessary, implementation of strategies.
- Implementing and driving Key Performance Indicators (KPIs).
- Understanding the components which impact all areas of your business, including:
 - Strategic planning
 - Business planning
 - Operational analysis
 - Risk analysis and management
 - Succession planning
 - Corporate Governance
 - Business health check.

Services

Willmann Consulting can act as a source of Executive and Board knowledge to assist your business in meeting strategic objectives; such as:

- Help shareholders/owners provide avenues to transparently work through management issues which may be preventing businesses from reaching their full potential.
- Assist boards and executives in the development and management of governance and corporate responsibilities.
- Review corporate governance compliance.
- Provide Professional Development opportunities for management to increase their skills / knowledge / behaviours.
- Provide fresh ideas and objectivity to enterprises.
- Challenge existing ideas and processes to ensure opportunities are not lost / wasted and instil a culture of continuous improvement in management.
- Ensure accountability among ALL management.

